SUNG REFRAIN: O God, Our Help in Ages Past

"O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,

Our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home."

You who live in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, will say to the Lord, "My refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust."

Because you have made the Lord your refuge, the Most High your dwelling place, no evil shall befall you, no scourge come near your tent.

For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

SUNG REFRAIN:

"Under the shadow of your throne your saints have dwelt secure;

Sufficient is your arm alone, and our defense is sure."

On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.

You will tread on the lion and the adder, the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot.

Those who love me, I will deliver; I will protect those who know my name.

When they call to me, I will answer them; I will be with them in trouble,

I will rescue them and honor them. With long life I will satisfy them, and show them my salvation.

SUNG REFRAIN:

"O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,

Still be our God while troubles last, and our eternal home!"

Luke 4:1-13

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'"

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,' And Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

SERMON "From Garden to Desert and Back Again". Rev. Will

NCIS: New-Comers Inquiry Session Sunday, March 6, 11:30 AM :New to First Congregational Church? If you'd like to learn more about our community, or are interested in becoming a member, please join us for an informal sharing and informational session immediately following worship on Sunday, March 6th. Please speak to one of the ministers or let Sarah in the office know at first.congregational@verizon.net if you are interested, and if you will need childcare. The gathering will last about an hour. Please join us!

Special Note on this Morning's Anthem: In 1886, when he wrote the Pavane, Fauré was at the halfway mark of a long and quiet life. Based on a 16th century court dance of Italian origin, Fauré's Pavane has proven to be one of the most beloved melodies of the formal classical repertoire. But why a choral arrangement with a "Kyrie" text? As we "bury" the "Alleluia" during Lent (refrain from its spoken or sung use until Easter morning), we replace it with the penitential supplication, "Kyrie" or "Lord, have mercy." This text is traditionally sung during Lent, as a symbol of humility and unerring trust in God's mercy.

Books for Your Lenten Journey – The church library has put out on display some books that are especially relevant to this season of Lent. Among them are two new books on "centering prayer" recommended by our Saturday workshop presenter. They can be found on the table in the lobby. Please sign them out if you wish to borrow them.
