CALL TO CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

Tom Roche

THE CALL TO WORSHIP

Kathleen Zagata

We are gathered in the presence of the risen Christ who remains with us forever through the Holy Spirit.
When we abide in the love of Christ love, joy, and peace, grow.
We are rooted in Christ's love that we may bear these fruits together with all God's people.
With the faithful of every nation we sing: blessing, glory, thanks, and honor be to God forever and ever, Amen.

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise

*CALL TO CONFESSION

Rev. William Burhans

Prayer of Confession (adapted from Joseph Fort Newton)
O God, together we confess our personal and social sin, asking You to forgive our blindness, our indifference,
and our hard-heartedness.
Show us that we are brothers and sisters in this human family,
and that the hurt of one, even the humblest among us,
is an injury to all and a sin against You.
Deliver us from every form of the spirit of oppression, and release us from greed which seeks comfort or gain at the expense of others.
Give us new eyes to see the injustices around us and to recognize what we might do to make this world a more just place.
Evoke in us a new spirit of generosity and unite us in one purpose to understand and to act, making our faith fruitful in the service of one another as each person struggles for a fuller life.
Fill us with the spirit of Jesus.
Illuminate our minds with light and anoint our hearts with love.
In Jesus' name, amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Kathleen

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

*AN ACT OF PRAISE

Gloria Patri
(Please use words that are most meaningful to you)
Glory be to the Creator and to the Christ and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be;
World without end, amen, amen.

How Can I Keep from Singing? [arr. 1995]
Based on a hymn by Robert Lowry [1869]

My life flows on in endless song above earth's lamentation.
I hear the real though distant song that hails a new creation.
Through all the tumult and the strife I hear the music ringing.
It sounds an echo in my soul, how can I keep from singing?

What though the tempest loudly roars, I hear the truth, it's living!
What though the darkness round me close, songs in the night it's giving!
No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging.
Since I believe that love abides, how can I keep from singing?

When tyrants tremble when they hear the bells of freedom ringing.
When friends rejoice both far and near, how can I keep from singing?
In prison cell, in dungeon dark, our thoughts to them are winging.
When friends hold courage in their heart, how can I keep from singing?

No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging.
Since I believe that love abides, how can I keep from singing?

*Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise God all creatures here below,
Praise God above you heavenly host,
Creator, Christ and Holy Ghost. Amen.

SUNG REFRAIN

Bless the Lord, My Soul

m.: J.Berthier, Taizé

Bless the LORD, O my soul.
O LORD my God, you are very great.
You are clothed with honor and majesty, wrapped in light as with a garment.
You stretch out the heavens like a tent, you set the beams of your chambers on the waters, you make the clouds your chariot, you ride on the wings of the wind, you make the winds your messengers, fire and flame your ministers.

SUNG REFRAIN

You set the earth on its foundations, so that it shall never be shaken.
You cover it with the deep as with a garment; the waters stood above the mountains.
At your rebuke they flee; at the sound of your thunder they take to flight.
They rose up to the mountains, ran down to the valleys to the place that you appointed for them.
You set a boundary that they may not pass, so that they might not again cover the earth.
O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.
Praise the LORD!

SUNG REFRAIN

Mark 10:46-52

They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you." So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well."

Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

WE'RE IN FOR A TREAT THIS MONTH at the Purpose Forum: our new Pastor, Rev.
Will Burhans, will be leading us in some creative thinking about how to be more outward-facing. We know that vibrant churches turn their gaze outward toward their neighbors. Come find out what Pastor Will recommends to live into our purpose of "welcoming all with joy." Check it out! Oct 28, 7:30pm Palmer Room All Are

AN INVITATION TO THE LEADERSHIP TEAM MEETING!
October 18th at 11:30 am in the Henry room.

The Leadership Team, the group that has strategic decision-making responsibility in our church, is having monthly meetings. The inaugural meeting was held in May and we have been gradually learning to live into our new role.

The first part of the meeting is open to all-comers, so that there is opportunity for anyone within our congregation, including representatives of sustaining and living ministries, to bring items to the Leadership Team for presentation or discussion. Please feel invited to our October meeting and let me know if there is something that you would like to discuss or present. I will work with you to determine whether the topic is appropriate for LT strategic decision making and discernment.

Thank you.

A 10TH YEAR RETROSPECTIVE LOOK: Faith and Resilience Post Katrina

Tuesday, October 27th 2015 – 7PM to 9 PM in the Palmer Room: Three groups of FCC members traveled to New Orleans and the surrounding areas post Katrina to participate in faith based recovery projects. In August, I attended a conference in New Orleans that spoke to the accumulative effects of these projects. On 10/27, join fellow church mission companions who participated in the recovery efforts for a look back at the lessons learned. The circle welcomes members with personal stories and those who supported family and friends. The event is open to members of the wider community who wish to give witness. Please bring a memory and/or photo to share. RSVP/Questions: Kathleen Zagata, 781 729-9180 ext 106 or Kathleenzag@gmail.com

THE DEACONS ARE SPONSORING A NEW THEMED MEDITATION/PRAYER SERIES TITLED, "Our Christian Toolkit: Learning Christian Spiritual Practices We Can Use Throughout Our Lives." The sessions will be designed and led by the Rev. Dr. Ken Orth, who has led our congregation in deep spiritual work for many years. There will be a guidebook for each session, consisting of prayers, structured meditations, poems, and suggested practices, so that participants may practice at home or form ongoing small groups. The first session, Gratitude and Forgiveness was on Sunday, September 20. Watch for news about follow-up to this exciting and very meaningful session. The second session, Mourning and Loss, will be held TODAY, from 11:30-1 in the Palmer Room. Healthy snacks and childcare provided. Come join us!

Just Peace Sunday
October 18, 2015

STEWARDSHIP SEASON IS HERE!! It is Stewardship Season! We are all “stewards” of our church, and we together share the joy and responsibility of caring for it – through our attendance and participation; our gifts of time, talent and energy; and our financial support.

This time of year is when we consider and celebrate fiscal stewardship ... when we are each called upon to consider prayerfully, thoughtfully, and faithfully, what sort of pledge we wish to make to our church.

This year’s stewardship theme “Trust in the Promise” is inspired by the words of Jeremiah (29:11): For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. Please keep a watch out for information and materials over the coming weeks as we together prepare for Stewardship Sunday on November 1 and Pledge Sunday on November 8.

HAVE YOU BEEN PART OF THE WORSHIPPING COMMUNITY at First Congregational Church in Winchester for a few months--or several years—and wondered what taking the step to officially become a “member” might entail? If so, we invite you to attend an “Inquirers' Gathering" regarding church membership on Sunday, October 25, 11:30, upstairs in Will’s Office. Rev. Will will lead the gathering, along with a few other members of the church and the ministry team. We’ll meet for about an hour and delve into what difference church membership can make—in our lives and in the world. (If you would like to attend the Inquirers’ Gathering, please fill out this sheet and drop it in the offering plate or leave it in the church office. Thanks!)
