Angels We Have Heard on High

PH #116

*Prayer of Confession

Kathleen Zagata

One: Eternal God, in the long ago days when the earth was flat, and heaven was above the clouds, and disease was caused by demons, your son was born to lighten all our darkneses. We now, after the enlightenment, are in bondage to different limitations. We doubt what we cannot prove; we ignore what we cannot see, and finding little room for faith, we must confess

All: We suspect angels and disbelieve good news.

One: We admit ourselves to be both infected and affected by the spirit of our times. Behind talk of world peace, we hear the machinery of war; beneath talk of global equality we detect the posturing of the powerful; beside talk of your church being renewed, we recognize the bondage to failed patterns of the past. Rather than embrace the light, we become fascinated by darkness, and must confess

ALL: We suspect angels and disbelieve good news.

One: Ah, God, who will save us? Our cynicism is the fruit of our experience, not the key to the future. Our suspiciousness helps us to smell the rat, never to recognize the dove. Our perfect analysis may describe the mountain but is helpless to move it. It is with little pride we must confess

ALL: We suspect angels and disbelieve good news.

One: As Christmas approaches, give us a share of that divine naivete enjoyed by Elizabeth and Zechariah, Mary and Joseph who encountered angels and believed the Good News and recognized Christ among them.

ALL: AMEN

One: God has heard our confession and delights in our desire for reunion. As soon as we turn toward God, God's arms open wide to welcome us. So, as forgiven people let us say together the prayer Jesus taught us:

ALL: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever, amen.

Anthem Advent Alleluia [2003]

Music by Jonathan Willcocks (b. 1953)

Quoting CROSS OF JESUS by John Stainer (1887) and HELMSLEY by Thomas Olivers (1763)

Text by Charles Wesley (1707-88)

Come, thou long-expected Jesus, born to set thy people free;
From our fears and sins release us; let us find our rest in thee. Alleluia.
Israel's strength and consolation, hope of all the earth thou art;
Dear desire of every nation, joy of every longing heart.
(Lo, he comes with clouds descending, o come quickly, Alleluia.)
Born thy people to deliver, born a child and yet a king,
Born to reign in us forever, now thy gracious kingdom bring.
(Yea, amen, let all adore him, o come quickly, Alleluia.)
Lo! He comes with clouds descending, once for favored sinners slain;
Thousand saints attending swell the triumph of his train.
God appears on earth to reign.
Yea, amen, let all adore thee, high on thine eternal throne,
Savior, take the power and glory; claim the kingdom for thine own.

Restrooms

Restrooms are located down the stairs as you first enter the front doors of the church.

Accessibility

Listening devices are available in the back of the sanctuary for the hearing impaired. An after-worship coffee hour is held in Chidley Hall on the bottom floor of the church building. An elevator is located out the doors to the right of the front chancel area and down the hall. Please ask a greeter if you need assistance.

Childcare

Children are always welcome in the sanctuary! We appreciate the sounds of little ones among us. If you'd prefer, there is a professionally staffed nursery on the floor beneath the sanctuary. Ask a greeter if you need help finding it.

Family Room

There is also a comfortable room with sofas, chairs, carpet and an audio link to the service for when you need more room to attend to your family. It is located just outside the doors to the right of the front chancel area.

Children (Stepping Stones) and Youth Church School

Classes for children and youth in pre-k through 12th grade are taught during worship. Families begin the worship service together in the sanctuary. Children are then invited to join us at the front (if they are comfortable) for the Time for the Young. Afterwards, the children and youth are led to their classrooms by their teachers.

Get connected!

Please tell us about yourself and/or request a prayer by filling out a Welcome/Prayer Request Card found in each pew and place it in the offering plate when it passes.
